Magazine advertisers

In these unprecedented times of the Corona-virus pandemic we will not be charging our advertisers for their adverts this year; we haven't actually printed any magazines since March.

Please continue to support local businesses and if you use any who advertise with us please remember to tell them where you found their details.

Please remember in your prayers :

Please remember in your prayers the families of all who have recently died including: Carole Powell, Leighton Holcombe, Anthony Maitland, Arthur Smith, Richard David, Betty Pine, Philip Williams, Eirwen Hardwick, Malcolm Doster, Chris Jones, Enid Ratliff, Jean Golding, Ray Pope, Ann Groves, Jackie Holmes, Joan Whitty, Neville Jones, Judy Davies, Paula Baylis, Jonathan Smart, Joan Phillips, Stan David, John Jones, Tony Cale, Margaret Manley and Nancy Mummery (formerly Willis).

Please Pray For:

Alex Morgan, Chris Clark, Linda Rigby, Peggy Utting, Pat Parkinson, Margaret Hocking, Ron Havard, Susan Saunders and Lindsey, Beverley Duddridge, Phillis Williams, Kitty Evans, Betty France, Christine Smith, Mary Evans, Tess Marchman, Rebecca and Steve Davis and family and Jeff and Anne Howells.

We also pray for those living with dementia and their carers, and all those suffering with coronavirus, those in isolation and all who are worried.

STEWARDSHIP

We know it is still difficult for all those who normally give to the parish through their stewardship envelope or the yellow gift aid envelopes, however, we are able to take card payments over the phone.

If you would like to do this please ring Roger 208312 or Shirley 226006 – just have your bank card ready and you can tell us how much you want to give.

Cheques can be sent to Mrs Shirley Evans, 21 Clos Leland, Llantrisant. CF72 8QN. Please give your envelope number if you have one.

Thank you to all those who give by Standing Order, these will carry on as usual. If you would like to set up a Standing Order with your bank (you will probably need to do so online or over the phone at the moment) ring Roger for the Parish bank account number and sort code. These are difficult times for all of us and reduced income for all the churches in the Benefice over this period has had a big impact.

Please pass the message on.

Many thanks.

Operation Christmas Child

Unfortunately Operation Christmas Child will not be able to run at full strength this year. However you can still support this worthwhile cause if you have a shoe-box or "fillers" which can be used to replenish boxes. If so please can you take them to the Bethel Baptist Church Centre in Pontyclun between the dates of Monday 9th November until Friday November 13th, from 9.00am - 1.00pm.

Unfortunately we also could not arrange the highly successful Macmillan Coffee Morning in the Church Hall this year. This has been such a joy to organise and hold but after all these years we were beaten by Covid 19. Please pray that our scientists can find a vaccine or cure quickly so that hopefully we can arrange this for next year.

Anne Howells.

Latest message from Sibembe Church in Uganda our link church with PONT:

Hi Shirley and Huw

We send you greetings from our family and Sibembe church in the lord's name. We hope that you are fine. Thank you for the work of God in Llantrisant parish . Thank you for your prayers that I have recovered from malaria.

The government last Sunday declared the re -opening of churches and schools for candidate classes. Schools will open October 15th.

So today we resumed worshipping God in Sibembe Church. We kept social distance and wore masks. We had songs of praise and worship to God.

The message was taken from Isiah 45:9-22. The minister spoke about the greatness of God. He said that our God is sovereign, there is no other verse 18 and 22 we need to give him glory and honour through prayer, confession and studying his word. We were urged to obey God, appreciate his work as the creator of heaven and earth and creating us in his own image. It was a great message.

We look forward to hearing from you. Blessings.

James and Joyce.

Word for Today

Following one of Vincent's New Thursday Evening Prayer theme of Laughter, the 'Word for Today' last month was called

LAUGH MORE!

'We were filled with laughter and...sang for joy.' Psalm 126:2
NTL

God created every human emotion you feel. He designed you to cry when you are sad and laugh when you are happy: 'For everything there is a season...A time to cry and a time to laugh' (Ecclesiastes 3:1,4 NTL). Jesus said, 'These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full' (John 15:11 KJV).

Question: how often do you laugh?

Doctors say laughter has incredible healing effects on your body. It also has incredible healing effects on your mind and soul. Stop and think about the days you laughed, even though you really didn't have anything to laugh about. You were far from God and bound by sinful habits, but He set you free, didn't He?

In the Old Testament we read: 'When the Lord brought back his exiles to Jerusalem, it was like a dream! We were filled with laughter...sang for joy...And other nations said, "What amazing things the Lord has done for them." Yes, the Lord has done amazing things for us! What joy! Psalm 126:1-3 NTL).

If God has set you free, then you truly have something to laugh about. Stop being so 'heavy' about everything! Expecting perfection from yourself; your slow growth in God; your deficient prayer life; your failure to memorise more scripture verses; your fear of sharing your faith with others, etc. We carry around such heavy burdens.

If you're 'laughter impaired' you may have to work at it. It's easy to find plenty to worry about, but to be happy, we sometimes need to work at it a little.

So the word for today is - laugh more!

St James the Least of All (second time around) On the ferocity of the church's Bridge drive

*The Rectory
St James the Least of All*

My dear Nephew Darren

Your suggestion that we should hold a sponsored hymn-singing bicycle ride through the village as a way of raising money was well-meant, but I am not wholly convinced it would suit our clientele here at St James the Least of All.

You may have musical bike rides, but we have Bridge drives, although socially distanced at the moment, of course. But even at two metres apart, our Bridge games are generally as amiable and peaceful as bear baiting. Half of those attending will see the afternoon as an opportunity to catch up on local gossip and to exchange knitting patterns, the game of cards being a minor hindrance to these other activities. The other half arrive primed for a battle to the death, reluctantly conceding that eye-gouging is not allowed. They will demand total silence – which is wholly ignored by those at the tables discovering what Mrs Trumpington confided to Lady Driver halfway through 'Onward Christian Soldiers' at last Sunday's Mattins. The congregation is eternally grateful to Mrs Mitchell, who as a former mill worker is able to lip read.

Refreshments have been hit hard by Covid-19 of course, and the fact that everyone has to bring their own sandwich and drink has rather spoilt the fun. Usually half our players regard lunchtime as an opportunity to put jam on the cards, spill tea on the score cards and make sure that the other tables get the egg and cress sandwiches while they corner the boiled ham; the others usually see it as an unwelcome interruption to the serious business of slaughtering their opponents. It is so sad that Covid-19 has halted this merry comradery.

As for drawing the raffle, it is the adult equivalent of ringing the school bell at going-home time. Half the players will immediately dash off to relay newly mined seams of gossip throughout the village, leaving the others holding reproachful post-mortems with their partners over their bidding mistakes. Reproaches are never too violent, however, since the chances are that they will all be meeting again the following afternoon round a socially distanced card table at another location, for yet another re-enactment of the slaughter at Agincourt. The only difference will be that the French and English were not entertained with tea and sandwiches at half time.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

This month Scotland remembers one of the very first disciples of Jesus. St Andrew is honoured not for any mighty deeds of his own, but for his love of introducing people to Jesus. He went straight off and introduced his brother Peter to the Saviour, and followed that up by bringing Nathanael/Bartholomew to Jesus. ‘Better Together’ seems to have been his slogan, too! ‘We have found the Messiah!’, he told them, unable to keep the good news to himself. Andrew’s connection with Scotland dates back to the claimed translation of his remains from Patras in Achaia to Scotland in the eighth century. The church in Fife where these remains were buried became a place of pilgrimage during the tenth century. All of this may be no more than pious legend, but that St Andrew was highly regarded in Scotland and became its patron saint is beyond doubt.

REMEMBERING

How do you remember things?

In bible times God's people would remember what God had done for them by building monuments made of stones and by holding festivals and celebrations to give thanks to God.

READ Joshua 4:1-9 and Exodus 12:1-14

Today we too build monuments to remember and hold services of thanksgiving like Harvest and Remembrance Sunday.

Is there anything you would like to thank God for?

REMEMBRANCE • SACRIFICE • VICTORY • TRIUMPH • MONUMENT
 ROCK • PILE • OBSERVE • TRIBUTE • COMMEMORATE • RECALL • OFFERING
 HONOUR • CELEBRATE • PRAISE • REJOICE • THANKSGIVING • DAYS
 FESTIVAL • EASTER • PENTECOST • HARVEST • CHRISTMAS

Bible Bites

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in
Lk 8:40-56, Mt 9:18-26, Mk 5:21-43

Jairus, a town leader, had a 12 year old daughter who was ill and about to die. He came to Jesus and knelt at his feet...

Please come! If you touch her she will be healed.

Jesus went with him.

In the crowd was a woman who had been ill for 12 years.

If I touch his cloak I will be healed

Jesus felt power go out of him

Who touched me?

Jesus waited ...

and the woman knew she had to tell him.

She knelt at Jesus' feet and told him everything

Go, daughter. Your faith has healed you.

Then Jairus was told his daughter had just died.

But Jesus said

Don't be afraid, just believe and she will be healed.

When they got to Jairus' house, it was filled with people mourning.

She is not dead, but asleep.

They laughed at Jesus. He sent them out of the house.

Little girl, get up!

At once she stood up!

Her parents were amazed.

Give her something to eat, and don't tell anyone what has happened.
